CHESS CAPITAL

BLED The Chess Capital of The World

A tradition, starting way back in the year 1931, which has peaked with hosting of the 35th Olympiad 2002. With the tradition that refuses to die – in November Bled is hosting the World Championship again; this time with seniors as our guests.

Big champions of Bled tournaments:

1931 Aleksandr Alekhine,

1949 Max Euwe,

1959 Mikhail Tal, Vasily Smyslov, Tigran Petrosian, Robert Fischer,

2002 Garry Kasparov,

and many other big chess names.
